DETAILED ACTION

1. The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not). The first two claims are both numbered "11".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 16-21 recites the limitation "dowels". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 11 (1st claim) and 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cole.

Cole discloses the use of a tool comprising a cylinder having a first face and a second face and an outer perimeter and a central axis, the outer perimeter surrounding the central axis; the cylinder having a first face and a second face and an outer perimeter surrounding the central axis; the cylinder having a first shaft extending outwardly from the first face of the cylinder parallel to and offset from the central axis; the cylinder having a second shaft extending outwardly from the second face of the cylinder parallel to and offset from the central axis (see figure 1). The shafts as disclosed by Cole are coaxial (see figure 1).

Cole does not disclose the use of a tool for removing a pin block from a piano.

The recitation of "a tool for removing a pin block from a piano" has not been given patentable weight because it has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647.

Cole does not disclose specific diameters as disclosed by the applicant.

However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the diameters as claimed by the applicant since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Art Unit: 2837

3. Claims 11 (2nd claim) is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cole in view of Chow.

Cole does not disclose the specific use of a head therein for receipt of a wrench.

Chow discloses the use of a shaft the includes a head thereon for receipt of a wrench (see figure 1).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the tool as disclosed by Cole to include the head as disclosed by Chow in order to provide an efficient means of tightening a shaft head.

4. Claims 16-21 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
